Misia Callista Abdipatra

Data Scientist Intern at Alfragift - Global Loyalty Indonesia |
Undergraduate Computer Science Student at BINUS University
Tangerang Selatan, Banten, Indonesia

Ringkasan

Hello! I'm Misia Callista Abdipatra, actively pursuing a degree in Computer Science and currently in my 6th semester. My passion lies in the intersection of computer science, social media, and data processing. I thrive on exploring innovative ways technology can enhance our digital experiences.

Alongside my academic journey, I've actively contributed as a Freshmen Leader and honed my writing skills as a copywriter. These experiences have equipped me with valuable leadership and communication skills. I am adaptable, driven by a constant eagerness to learn and grow. My commitment extends beyond personal development. I am dedicated to making a positive impact in both my learning environment and the community around me.

Excited about the continuous evolution of technology, I am determined to unlock my full potential as an active and engaged student.
